Code of Conduct

1. Curling is a “good sportsmanship” game. Have respect for yourself, other curlers, coaches, volunteers and the facilities.
2. Cooperate with your coach, teammates, and opponents, for without them you don't have a game.
3. Follow instructions. Coaches are volunteering their time so listen and act respectfully or you will be asked to leave the ice.
4. Appropriate behavior is expected on and off the ice. This means no running, yelling, inappropriate language or throwing things. Brooms are to remain on the ice and at your side when you are not sweeping.
5. Horseplay will not be tolerated. The ice surface is dangerous if you fall. You will be asked to leave the ice if you are not acting in a safe manner.
6. You must have a coach's permission before going on the ice. No unsupervised practice is allowed.
7. Be prepared to curl. This includes having proper shoes, broom, slider, appropriate clothes and no shorts. Always use the cleaner to clean your footwear before going on the ice.
8. Be on time. Other curlers and teammates are depending on you. Please let a coach or one of your teammates know if you will be late or have to miss a day.
9. Do not eat or drink on the ice - only water bottles are permitted.
10. Remember that the goal is to have fun and improve your skills. Be a good sport and cheer all good plays from both your team and your opponent's.
